SIGURD ANDERSON
GOVERNOR

PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, both November 11 and November 12 are being celebrated as Armistice Day holidays throughout the United States and in parts of this state and in many of the published calendars now in use show both days as holidays; and

WHEREAS, many business firms, institutions, postoffices and individuals have heretofore arranged for Monday, November 12 as a holiday, following Sunday, November 11, and

WHEREAS, some confusion may result from failure to properly observe Armistice Day as a legal holiday on November 12;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, by virtue of the authority vested in me by SDC 65.0404, as amended by Chapter 373 of the Session Laws of 1941, as further amended by Chapter 470 of the Session Laws of 1951 and in order to prevent confusion and to provide for uniformity in the proper observance of Armistice Day, a day which is of considerable significance to all Americans and especially so in this year of 1951 when an Armistice is being arranged for in the Korean war and in order to emphasize the part that American fighting men have played in the preservation of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the date of Monday, November 12, 1951, as a holiday throughout the State of South Dakota and request that the flags of our country be displayed in the usual public places and that programs and public gatherings in observance of Armistice Day be held wherever possible and that observance of the importance of Armistice Day be celebrated throughout the State of South Dakota on both November 11 and November 12, 1951.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 5th day of November, 1951

Sigurd Anderson
Governor
